

...us of campus controversy for several years before the Kansas Legislature granted renovation money in 1981.

The basement documents from

1975

1979

Nichols Gymnasium has stood vacant since 1972, when the two swimming pools, added to the building in 1915, were closed after the opening of the Natatorium.

President Duane Acker addressed a group of protestors outside Anderson Hall who demonstrated against Acker's attempt to have Nichols Gymnasium razed.

A work removal of and small of Nichol preparation renovation.